Flinders UNIVERSITY
Northern Territory

Training Pathways for Anaesthetic Specialists in the Northern Territory

Specialist International Medical Graduates (SIMG)
With AMC verified qualifications

SIMG process

Assessed as Substantially or Partially comparable

Assessed as Not Comparable

Area of Need position

Secure employment, obtain registration, complete College requirements

Fellowship
FANZCA

Continuing professional development

Aust/NZ Medical Graduate or Overseas Graduate with Australian Medical Council Certificate Full General Registration

Completed PGY2 (minimum)
PGY1 and PGY2 must include at least 12 months of general training in areas other than Anaesthetics and Intensive care

The Australian and New Zealand College of Anaesthetists ANZCA
5 years

Application and Registration

Teaching Hospitals in the NT

Interns Residents
Anaesthetic RMO positions
Alice Springs Darwin

Prior to registration obtain a position in an ANZCA accredited training site
How to apply for registrar positions in the NT
Alice Springs (6 months) Basic training
6 months ICU and Emergency training
Darwin (24 months) - across Introductory, basic and advanced training.
ALS available in the NT
Positions for advanced Registrars, GP trainees and ACEM trainees.

For more information contact Dr Jacob Koshy (ASH) or Brian Spain (RDH)

Commence vocational training
Undertake training as part of a training network 4 years
SANTRATS (Alice Springs & Darwin) QARTS (Darwin)
SA/NT Regional Committee
Training program Handbook for training
During Introductory training (6 months), Basic training (18 months), and Advanced training (24 months) trainees need to cover 138 weeks Clinical Anaesthesia time , Maximum of 13 weeks pain or retrieval medicine (optional), 38 weeks other clinical time.
ALS, EMST, EMAC & Scholar Role requirements
See Training requirements summary for more details

Provisional Fellowship training
12 months
Alice Springs / Royal Darwin Hospital
Other Clinical training
EMAC course (any time after Introductory training)

ANZCA Australian and New Zealand College of Anaesthetists.
ALS Advanced Life Support course
EMAC—Effective Management of Anaesthetic Crises
EMST—Early Management of Severe Trauma