Training Pathways for Radiation Oncology & Clinical Radiology Specialists in the Northern Territory

Flinders University
Northern Territory

International Medical Graduates
With AMC verified qualifications

Specialist Assessment

Assessed as Substantially or Partially Comparable

Secure employment, obtain registration, complete College requirements

Assessed as Not Comparable

Area of Need Position

Fellowship
Radiation Oncology
Clinical Radiology

Continued Professional Development

Aust/NZ Medical Graduate or Overseas Graduate with Australian Medical Council Certificate
Full General Registration
Completed PGY2 (minimum)

Teaching Hospitals in the NT

Resident training

Royal Darwin Hospital

The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Radiologists RANZCR

- Radiation Oncology 5 years
  Application form

or

- Clinical Radiology 5 years
  Application form

Obtain a position in a RANZCR accredited training site and start training

How to apply in the NT

Royal Darwin Hospital

Apply to RANZCR by the end of second week of training

Training sites and Networks led by Training Network Directors (Radiation Oncology) and Network Training Directors (Clinical Radiology)

For information on the South Australian/ Northern Territory Network, please contact RANZCR's Accreditation Team accreditation@ranzcr.edu.au

Commence Vocational Training

Rotate through various sites as part of a network

Radiation Oncology
Phase 1 approx. 18 - 24mths
Phase 2 from end of Phase 1
The exact length of each phase depends on progress and achievement of milestones.
Curriculum | Training Program

Clinical Radiation
Phase 1 - 3 years general radiology
Phase 2 - 2 years systems focused rotations
Curriculum | Training Program