Training pathways for General Practitioners/Rural Generalists in the NT with RACGP

Flinders UNIVERSITY
Northern Territory

Becoming a GP /Rural Generalist with RACGP

International Medical Graduates (IMG)

Area of Need position

Pathways to Fellowship

Specialist Recognition Program (closes 31 August 2019)

Practice Experience Program (opens Sept 2019) handbook

PEP Standard Scheme
No specialist qualification and deemed as non comparable
For Drs working in MMM2 to MMM7 areas

PEP Specialist Stream
applications open 1 Sept 2019
a recognised specialist qualification is required

Fellowship
FRACGP

Continuing Professional Development

FARGP
An additional 1 year of Advanced Rural Skills training in a relevant discipline as part of vocational training or RPL for GP's

Fellowship
FARGP
Rural Genealist

AGPT—Australian General Practice Training
FRACGP - Fellow Royal Australian College of General Practice
FARGP - Fellow Advanced Rural General Practice
RGT—Rural Generalist Training
MMM—Modified Monash Model

Aust/NZ Medical Graduate or Overseas Graduate with Australian Medical Council Certificate
Full General Registration
Completed PGY1 (min) -Mandatory hospital rotations do not have to be completed before application and entry into the AGPT Program. They should be completed prior to the second year of the Program.

Resident positions In the NT

Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP)

FRACGP 3 years, FARGP 4 years , Rural Generalist up to 5 years (see page 11 of the Selection Guide)
Rural General Practice
Vocational Training Pathway (AGPT)
Application & Selection Process
Regional Training Organisations (RTO's)
Training requirements include -

- Min 1 year hospital rotations
- 18 months GP experience
- 6 months Extended Skills Training
- Aboriginal Health Curriculum
- Training in two different practices
- Diversity in patient presentations.

Yagila Wadamba Program - Indigenous GP registrar support

(AGPT) -Apply to RACGP or ACRRM
(AGPT will assess eligibility)
New applicants
To Enrol in the Rural Generalist pathway, apply for Rural pathway, FRACGP and FARCP and lodge an EOI for Rural Generalist- see page 18 of the Guide
Information seminars on the Program

Northern Territory General Practice Education NTGPE
Regional Training Provider (NT)

How to apply for GP training
GP training handbook
RPL—see page 6

NTGPE training requirements
Placements
Find a placement
Scholarships and Awards

Remote Vocational Training Scheme
RVTS
3 years distance education & remote supervision leading to FRACGP
handbook
Aust wide intake quotas i.e. 22 Remote Stream or 10 AMS stream
Eligibility targeted recruitment (pilot)

Indigenous GP Registrar Network IGPRN
Peer support network offering academic, assessment, collegiate, social and cultural support.