

SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM
How Medical Device
Interoperability, Safety and Security Will Change
Healthcare.

Learn how digital health can support medical device quality and safety. We will highlight the challenges in healthcare interoperability and security.

February 10 & 11, 2020
Flinders at Tonsley, Lecture Theatre 2

Click Here to Register

See the Complete Program

Presented by the Flinders Digital Health Research Centre

Date	Time	Session Title	Session topics
Mon 10th Feb	8:30	Registration
	9.30-9.45am	Opening	Welcome remarks
	9.45-10.30pm	Learning the landscape	Basics of interoperability, standards (HL7, FHIR, ISO, IHE) - why, how, what.....
	10.30-11am	Morning Coffee
	11am-12.30pm	Learning the landscape (continued)	FHIR introduction
	12.30-1.30pm	Lunch
	1.30pm – 3pm	What's exciting now?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • War stories and challenges • New and innovative technologies delivering healthcare now
	3.00-3.30pm	Afternoon Tea
	3.30-4.30pm	What's exciting now...continued
	4.30-5.30pm	Tour of Tonsley
	5:30 – 7:30pm	Launch of the Digital Health Design Lab. Join us for drinks and canapes.

Tues 11th Feb AM	9.30-10.30am	Sharing global expertise	Advanced session on interoperability conformance (NIST), getting involved...]
	10.30-11am	Morning Coffee
	11am-12.30pm	Sharing global expertise (continued)	FHIR and FHIR
	12.30-1.30pm	Lunch
	1.30-2.45pm	Over the horizon: A measure of tomorrow.	What's exciting about the future? Searching for possibilities:
	2.45-3pm	Closing

Fees* include morning and afternoon tea, lunch, drinks and canapes at the launch of the Flinders Digital Design Lab.

General Admission	$220
Flinders Staff	$110
Students	$ 55

*GST included.

Contact Ginger Mudd if you need further information or assistance.

ginger.mudd@flinders.edu.au

+61 8 7221 8843

February 10 & 11, 2020
Flinders at Tonsley, Lecture Theatre 2

Click Here to Register

See the Complete Program