

Tjina Nurna-ka, Pmarra Nurna-kanha, Itla Itla Nurna-kanha Our Family, Our Country, Our Legacy

25 October 2019 – 27 January

Curated by Marisa Maher, Nic Brown and Madeline Reece

Flinders University Museum of Art and Art Gallery of South Australia

The exhibition Tjina Nurna-ka, Pmarra Nurna-kanha, Itla Itla Nurna-kanha: Our Family, Our Country, Our Legacy is the outcome of a collaboration between Flinders University Museum of Art and Ittja Ntjarra Many Hands Art Centre for Tarnanthi: festival of contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander art. In partnership with the Art Gallery of South Australia, the collaboration supported Tarnanthi curator-in-residence Marisa Maher to develop an exhibition that responds to the State's collections of historic watercolours and the legacy of Albert Namatjira. Drawn from practising artists of Ittja Ntjarra Many Hands Art Centre in Mparntwe (Alice Springs) and the collections of Flinders University Museum of Art, Art Gallery of South Australia and South Australian Museum, the exhibition features recent and decades-old paintings in a dialogue across generations.
