Flinders Business Trading Room

If you want to understand global markets, there's only so much you can get from textbooks. You need to be out there, on the trading floor, feeling the noise and excitement, making high-stakes decisions in real time.

Welcome to the Business Trading Room. It's a simulated financial trading centre for students enrolled in Flinders Business degrees.

How does it work?

The Flinders Business Trading Room is a cutting-edge market simulation program environment. Students can access time-series data on security prices and exchange rates, execute trades in real time and plug into financial modelling that mimics the global derivatives market.

The Trading Room is powered by the same tech used by institutional dealing rooms, fund managers and government research departments. It even has mobile and algorithmic trading capabilities. Think of it like Wall Street for beginners.

Who can use the Trading Room?

The Business Trading Room is built into the curriculum for several Flinders Business degrees, including the Bachelor of Finance, Bachelor of Finance and Business Economics, and Bachelor of Business.

"I've found all my academics to be very helpful throughout my study. Many of them have a high degree of expertise and experience, which provide very relevant insight to the legal and business fields. Many of my academics are still engaged in the industry, from consultancy to still practising as lawyers. All of my academics have been very easy to communicate with and have always been willing to help."

“The opportunity to gain international work experience made Flinders a natural choice for me.”

“I undertook the Washington Internship Program, which was incredible. I also did an internship with the United States Consulate General in Melbourne last year and found learning about diplomacy really fascinating.”

Molly Stephens

Bachelor of Laws and Legal Practice with International Relations (Honours)

Washington Internship Program

The Washington Internship Program provides you with an opportunity, unparalleled in Australia, to experience political life in Washington DC.

Flinders has been sending students on this unique seven-week placement in the US Congress since the program's inception in 2000. Recently, we sent our 100th Washington intern to Capitol Hill.

The program gives you a unique insight into US politics and an appreciation of the workings of the American political system.

As a participant in the program, you will work full-time in the office of a member of the United States Senate or the US House of Representatives. During this time, you are required to develop a research project, which will be the basis for your assessment. The placement contributes to the completion of your final year of study or a component of your Honours degree.

South Australian Parliamentary Internship

2020 was the 25th anniversary of the prestigious South Australian Parliamentary Internship Program.

This degree and career enhancing program gives successful applicants the opportunity to experience how Parliament operates from the inside. By working attached to the office of a Member of Parliament while completing a public policy research project nominated by the member under the formal supervision of a member of the Flinders academic staff.

SHANNON

“My degree has taken me around the world, and in 2020 I interned in Washington DC for Congressman Tom McClintock. I did all sorts of things as an intern: attended hearings and briefings, ran tours of the Capitol building for constituents, talked to visiting dignitaries, Chiefs of Staff, Members of Congress, and much more. I put the theory I've learnt at University into practice, learnt about American politics, and networked with many people and organisations.”

Shannon McSkimming

Flinders International Relations and Political Science student

If you have secondary education

Year 12 Entry

Most Year 12 applicants enter university via the traditional entry method, where offers are made to eligible applicants with the highest selection rank until all places in the degree are filled. Your selection rank is used by Flinders to assess your admission to a course and is based on your ATAR plus any adjustment factors for which you are eligible.

satac.edu.au

Guaranteed entry

If you achieve an ATAR equal or above the published guaranteed entry selection rank (and you meet course prerequisites) you will be guaranteed a place at Flinders. We offer guaranteed entry for most courses.

Indigenous Admission Scheme

The Indigenous Admission Scheme provides an alternative pathway for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, who may not have been able to gain entry to university by traditional means, with the opportunity to study at Flinders.

School Recommendation Program

We may consider your school's recommendation about your academic performance as part of your admission into Flinders.

uniTEST

If you're in Year 12, uniTEST is available to enhance your chances of getting into Flinders. We will select students based on their Year 12 results (60% weighting toward the ATAR selection rank) and uniTEST results (40%). Flinders will also consider applicants based on their uniTEST results (100%) as a standalone entry score (subject to SACE completion and any course prerequisites or specific admissions requirements). If you take the test and don't do well, we will only consider your highest selection rank.

Glossary

There are many terms used within a university that may be unfamiliar or confusing. Below are a few terms that may need explanation.

Admission pathway

Any one of the options available to a prospective higher education student that will enable them to meet the entry requirements of their chosen courses.

ATAR

The Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) is a ranking from 30 (lowest) to 99.95 (highest) agreed by COAG as a nationally equivalent measure of a person's relative academic ranking within their complete age cohort in the year they graduated from senior secondary school.

Adjustment factors

Often referred to previously as 'bonus points', these are additional points that may be used in combination with an applicant's ATAR to derive a person's course selection rank.

Defer

Delaying the start of a course of study by one year (commencing students only). If you have already enrolled, then you need to withdraw from topics before you can defer.

Guaranteed entry selection rank

Achieve a selection rank equal to or above the published guaranteed entry selection rank and you'll be guaranteed a place at Flinders.

Major

A sequence of topics required to be taken as defined in your course rule, normally across all years of a course.

Minor

A sequence of topics required to be taken as defined in your course rule, generally as part of a major.

Offer round/s

Refers to the series of dates on which offers of higher education places are issued to applicants throughout the year, whether through a tertiary admission centre or directly by a higher education provider.

Selection rank

The ranking that tertiary admission centres and most universities actually use to assess admission to a course. A person's course selection rank can include their ATAR, any adjustments they are eligible for, such as equity or subject adjustments, other contributions calculated on the basis of work experience or previous non-secondary study, portfolio assessments, results of the Special Tertiary Admissions Test, other supplementary tests, etc.
