

2023

At Flinders, it's all about your education career.

Grow your career – and their future – with Flinders' exciting new postgraduate degrees in Education

- Upskill and expand your knowledge in as little as six months
- Tailored to the needs and interests of you and your organisation
- 100% online options available, providing flexibility to study at your own pace
- Choose to study part-time, full-time, online or on campus

Flinders' postgraduate degrees in Education are industry-renowned, and our renewed suite has been further tailored to meet the needs of you, your organisation and the ever-changing educational contexts.

To download a digital copy of this brochure, scan here:

Postgraduate Education

Cognitive Psychology and Educational Practice	05
Counselling Vulnerable Children and Young People	06
Education	07
Inclusive and Specialised Education	08
Leadership in Education	09
Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)	10
Wellbeing and Positive Mental Health in Education	11
Research Methods	12
Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Education	13
How to apply	14

Get up to 80% off your university fees

Government subsidies enable Flinders to offer Domestic applicants a reduction of up to 80% off full course fees through Commonwealth Supported Places. In 2023, you will be able to apply for these places within select postgraduate education degrees. Don't miss out on an opportunity to take your career in education to the next level and become a leader in the industry.

Subject to change.

Contact us for further information: 1300 354 633

Fast-track your Master degree

Advanced standing

Are you a registered teacher with two or more years' experience? Do you hold one or more of the following?

- Four-year bachelor degree or equivalent
- Master of Teaching
- Graduate Diploma in Education

You may be eligible for Advanced Standing for up to 36 units (50%) of Flinders' Education Masters Degrees.^ This means that you could complete your studies within one year (or equivalent part time).

flinders.edu.au/credit-recognition-prior-learning

^Not applicable to Master of Teaching

Design your own study plan

Choose from our wide range of topics across the following Minor* programs of study or elect to complete one or more Minors* to develop areas of expertise within your Master degree.^ The completion of a Minor program of study, each comprised of four topics, will be recorded on your transcript.

- Cognitive Psychology and Educational Practice
- Complex Disabilities
- Gifted Education
- Languages Education
- Leadership in Education
- Learning Difficulties
- Rural, Regional and Remote Leadership
- Wellbeing and Positive Mental Health

*Each Master has a selection of Minors from which you can choose
^Not applicable to Master of Teaching degrees

No.1 in SA in Education & Training for learning resources, overall educational experience, skills development, student support and teaching quality

The Good Universities Guide 2022 (undergraduate), public SA-founded universities only

Top 300 in the world for Education & Training

QS World University Rankings by Subject 2021

Cognitive Psychology and Educational Practice

What is going on when students are trying to understand texts or diagrams, or when they are trying to solve problems? Can you help students change their motivational states? Can you influence learners' self-regulation of learning in the face-to-face and online environments?

Study Cognitive Psychology and Educational Practice, and you will uncover the answers to these questions and more. This unique program is designed to meet the increasing demand for professional education about teaching-learning issues such as motivation, cognition and metacognition.

Graduate Certificate in Cognitive Psychology and Educational Practice

SATAC code 2GC647

1 year (part-time only)

Online

Master of Cognitive Psychology and Educational Practice

SATAC code 2CM259

2 years full-time

Online

Your career

A masters degree from Flinders University is an asset recognised locally, nationally and internationally for anyone seeking and/or furthering a career in educational contexts.

Graduates will be equipped for careers in a wide range of settings, from early childhood, primary, secondary and post-secondary, vocational and higher education to policy and curriculum advisory, or corporate training contexts.

Potential occupations:

- teacher/educator/lecturer/trainer/tutor
- school/educational site principal/director
- teaching and learning coordinator/advisor/director/
- coordinator of educational programs
- education policy advisor
- school counsellor or wellbeing coordinator
- psychologist working with learners
- researcher.

Potential employers:

- schools and education sites in all education sectors nationally and internationally
- post-secondary/higher education providers
- non-government agencies and community development organisations
- education research institutions (in Australia and internationally)
- organisations in a range of contexts where expertise in teaching, learning, and training is involved (e.g. community organisations, corporate training).

Professional accreditation/recognition:

These courses can count towards professional learning.

These courses do not lead to teacher registration in South Australia.

Educators and leaders in the community, workplaces, universities and training institution.

“The impact of this course has changed the way I lead as a manager. The teaching, research, texts and intensive sessions were very beneficial.”

Matthew Price

South Australian Education Department Home Education Unit Manager and Graduate Certificate in Counselling Vulnerable Children and Young People graduate

“The Master of Education at Flinders University was an ideal way to take my teaching and educational leadership skills to the next level.”

Shani Sniedze-Gregory

Master of Education graduate

Counselling Vulnerable Children and Young People

The Graduate Certificate in Counselling Vulnerable Children and Young People addresses a national gap in counselling courses generally, and is specifically designed for educators and allied professionals working in educational contexts. This unique university-level course focuses on the counselling and wellbeing of children and young people.

Graduate Certificate in Counselling Vulnerable Children and Young People

SATAC code 2GC140

6 months to 1 year full-time*

Part-time available

Online

*full-time only available in semester two

 with some on-campus intensives

Your career

Designed to increase your awareness of counselling, mindfulness and expressive therapy methodologies, this course provides you with experience in a range of activities in these areas and the skills to implement strategies to assist vulnerable children and young people in a range of settings.

Potential occupations:

- teacher/educator/lecturer/trainer/tutor
- course counsellor
- rehabilitation counsellor
- school counsellor
- family counsellor
- welfare support worker
- youth worker
- community worker
- family support worker.

Education

The postgraduate education program is intended for people currently employed in education, special education or education management, and for those who have an interest in developing their knowledge and practice in these areas. It introduces knowledge and skills in your area of interest, with a focus on understanding and changing practice.

Graduate Certificate in Education

SATAC code 2GC004

6 months to 1 year full-time

Part-time available

Online

Master of Education

SATAC code 2CM260

2 years full-time

Part-time available

Online

Your career

A masters degree from Flinders University is an asset recognised locally, nationally and internationally for anyone seeking and/or furthering a career in educational contexts.

Graduates will be equipped for careers in a wide range of settings, ranging from a variety of school and universities settings at all possible levels to education departments and ministries, in Australia or internationally.

Potential occupations:

- teacher employed locally, nationally, or internationally
- coordinator of educational programs
- education administrator
- education policy maker or analyst
- school executive
- researcher.

Potential employers:

- public, private and independent schools
- Department of Education
- Ministry of Education
- education research institutions.

Professional accreditation/recognition:

These courses can count towards professional learning.

These courses do not lead to teacher registration in South Australia.

International Baccalaureate

If you're a teacher, educator or leader in an IB World school, or are looking to work in an IB World school in the future, the Graduate Certificate in International Baccalaureate Education will boost your career prospects and provide you with a deep understanding of IB philosophy, principles and practices. You will learn about the continuum of IB learning and can focus on one of the IB programmes relevant to your context to qualify for the IB Certificate in Teaching and Learning in either the Primary Years, Middle Years, or the Diploma Programme.

Graduate Certificate in International Baccalaureate Education

SATAC code 2GC153

1 year

Part-time only

External

Your career

Graduates will have the expertise in IB education that will enhance their career prospects within IB schools worldwide, in addition to equipping them with valuable insights and pedagogies relevant to careers in all educational contexts.

Potential occupations:

- IB educator
- IB leader
- educational consultant.

Potential employers:

There are over 5,400 IB schools, in 158 countries, that are potential employers of our graduates (as of February 2021).

Professional accreditation/recognition:

This course can count towards professional learning.

This course does not lead to teacher registration in South Australia.

Inclusive and Specialised Education

Are you passionate about ensuring children and young people with special educational needs receive an equitable and high-quality education?

Inclusive and specialised education courses at Flinders promote the educational entitlement of all learners, in particular those with disabilities, learning difficulties and those who are intellectually gifted. Studying at Flinders will extend your professional skills and build research-informed knowledge and understanding that will enable you to implement and lead inclusive and specialised educational processes and practices in your schools and sites.

Open to both teachers and members of professions other than teaching who wish to expand their professional expertise into the area of inclusive and specialised education, both the Graduate Certificates and the Masters may be completed fully online, providing you with the flexibility to study at your own pace and place.

Graduate Certificate in Inclusive Education

SATAC code 2GC652

1 year (part-time only)

Online

Graduate Certificate in Gifted Education

SATAC code 2GC656

1 year full-time

Part-time available

Online

Master of Inclusive and Specialised Education

SATAC code 2CM261

2 years full-time

Part-time available

Online

Your career

A masters degree from Flinders University is an asset recognised locally, nationally and internationally for anyone seeking and/or furthering a career in educational contexts.

Graduates will be equipped with knowledge and skills to lead design and inclusive and specialised education in a variety of settings, such as inclusive classrooms, specialised educational settings, and community programs.

Potential occupations:

- special/gifted education classroom teacher
- inclusive or special education coordinator in a school or site
- special education support roles
- gifted education support roles
- community roles in special needs settings.

Potential employers:

- schools and education sites in all education sectors nationally and internationally
- community organisations and local councils who employ graduates with special education qualifications.

Professional accreditation/recognition:

These courses can count towards professional learning.

These courses do not lead to teacher registration in South Australia.

Leadership in Education

Are you keen to identify and build on your strengths as a leader and gain an understanding of the relational and contextual nature of leadership?

Join our graduates, who have come from a wide variety of sectors with diverse qualifications, and gone on to lead positive change in their respective fields. You may be a current or future human resource manager, a school principal, aspiring teacher or departmental officer, a policy developer, vocational education sector manager, or a leader of a university academic or administration unit.

Flinders' Graduate Certificate and Master of Leadership in Education course offerings are distinctive in that they approach educational leadership from a humanistic perspective. Energetic, passionate staff will prepare you to think relationally and contextually to employ the skills and knowledge you gain in the classroom to the real world.

Graduate Certificate in Leadership in Education

SATAC code 2GC657

1 year (part-time only)

Online

Master of Leadership in Education

SATAC code 2CM262

2 years full-time

Part-time available

Online

Your career

The Graduate Certificate and Master of Leadership in Education focus on working with aspiring, middle and senior leaders to:

- understand how they might grow their leadership as change agents with knowledge and relational sensibilities to work with others for a better world
- identify where traditional notions of leadership must change
- support leadership which recognises local and global contexts, judgement, and relationships as fundamental to the way forward.

A masters degree from Flinders University is an asset recognised locally, nationally and internationally for anyone seeking and/or furthering a career in educational contexts.

You will be equipped for careers in a wide range of settings, and a range of middle and senior level positions to contribute to the leadership of an organisation through developing and working with diverse groups of people to achieve a responsive organisation that meets the needs of the people it serves.

Potential occupations:

- Principal
- wellbeing coordinator
- subject/teaching and learning leader
- community development officer.

Potential employers:

- Department for Education
- Catholic education
- independent sector
- equivalent international sectors

There are also opportunities in a range of fields with advancement to middle and senior levels of leadership positions.

Professional accreditation/recognition:

These courses can count towards professional learning.

These courses do not lead to teacher registration in South Australia.

Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

The Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) postgraduate program is aimed at developing understanding and skills in the area of TESOL. The courses are also designed to help you develop disciplinary knowledge in the area of second language acquisition, as well as specific knowledge in the area of teaching English to speakers of other languages.

Graduate Certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

SATAC code 2GC143

6 months full-time

Part-time available

External

Graduate Diploma in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

SATAC code 2GD119

1 year full-time

Part-time available

External*

* not available for all topics

Master of Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL)

SATAC code 2CM250

2 years full-time

Part-time available

External*

* not available for all topics

Your career

With the internationalisation of the job market, graduates with a qualification in English language teaching will have greater employment opportunities. Please note that these programs alone do not qualify graduates to teach in the Australian school system. A Bachelor of Education, or Master of Teaching, is required for teaching in an Australian primary or secondary school.

Potential occupations:

- private English language teacher
- assistant language teacher
- communications specialist
- immigration officer
- international student advisor
- linguist
- multicultural service officer
- travel consultant.

Wellbeing and Positive Mental Health in Education

The mental health and wellbeing of our students, clients, colleagues and communities is cause for growing concern. You have the opportunity to influence the future.

If you're a teacher, educator, leader or other professional in early years, school, community, workplace higher education or training institutions and settings this dynamic course will equip you to take the lead in promoting and sustaining holistic wellbeing and positive mental health interventions tailored to your particular site context and needs.

Enhance your awareness of a range of frameworks, theories and practices that will assist you to build capacity for wellbeing and positive mental health in educational contexts.

Graduate Certificate in Wellbeing and Positive Mental Health in Education

SATAC code 2GC655

1 year (part-time only)

Online

Master of Wellbeing and Positive Mental Health in Education

SATAC code 2CM263

2 years full-time

Part-time available

Online

Your career

A masters degree from Flinders University is an asset recognised locally, nationally and internationally for anyone seeking and/or furthering a career in educational contexts.

Graduates will be equipped for careers in a wide range of settings, from childcare/children's centres, kindergarten, primary, secondary and post-secondary/higher education to community centres and non-government agencies.

Potential occupations:

- wellbeing leader in early years, primary or secondary settings
- school counsellor
- wellbeing educator in early years, primary, secondary or post-secondary settings
- wellbeing advisor at a system level
- pastoral care worker
- social worker in education settings
- youth worker
- leader of wellbeing programs and interventions in community settings.

“Enrolling in the Master of Wellbeing and Positive Mental Health in Education course was one of the best decisions I have ever made.”

Jessica Jones

School teacher and Master of Wellbeing and Positive Mental Health in Education graduate

Potential employers:

- early years and school sites in government, independent and Catholic systems and sectors nationally and internationally
- non-government agencies and community development organisations.

Professional accreditation/recognition:

These courses can count towards professional learning. These courses do not lead to teacher registration in South Australia.

“This is one of the most connected and purposeful professional development and study opportunities I have experienced.”

Christine Vlassopoulos
School wellbeing leader and Master of Education
(Wellbeing and Positive Mental Health) graduate*

*From Semester 2, 2021 this course has been replaced with the new Master of Wellbeing and Positive Mental Health in Education

Research Methods

The Graduate Diploma in Research Methods prepares you with the skills to independently plan research activities, manage your time, and present your research both orally and in writing.

It is designed to provide you with in-depth knowledge of research methods and your subject area as a pathway to a higher degree by research. It includes a substantial 18-unit research thesis/project (one semester/six months) and the research methodology topics that provide the comprehensive research knowledge for applicants who do not otherwise have the research experience required to apply for entry into a higher degree by research.

Graduate Diploma in Research Methods
(College of Education, Psychology and Social Work)

SATAC code 2GD111

1 year full-time

Part-time available

Study program

The Graduate Diploma in Research Methods consists of 36 units (equivalent to one year full-time).

In addition to the 18-unit research thesis/ project, the course also includes 18 units of topics such as field-specific research methods, writing a literature review and ethics proposal, and specialised subject areas.

Graduates will gain the following:

- advanced knowledge of underlying academic principles and concepts in your area of study
- the capacity and skills to undertake independent research the ability to critically evaluate and analyse complex issues and deploy evidence in support of a research output.

A graduate certificate option is available as an exit award only. To find out more about the Graduate Diploma in Research Methods, including to view the program of study options, visit:

flinders.edu.au/study/courses/postgraduate-research-methods

Career opportunities:

Graduates can pursue careers in areas such as the government sector, private or corporate consulting sectors and research institutions.

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) in Education

Undertake a Higher Degree by Research in Education at Flinders and you will develop the skills and expertise to shape policy and practice and make a genuine difference in the diverse field of education, by developing a deep understanding of a specific area in the field. You will join researchers who work closely with industry to create new knowledge and develop innovative solutions to challenges across the education landscape.

Your career

The Doctor of Philosophy (Education) provides opportunities to work as leaders in schools, preschools and the educational sector. PhD graduates in Education become researchers as part of academia or in industry. As an Education Consultant you can work in Government departments such as Departments for Education, in the Independent Schools sector in urban and regional settings, and in Indigenous education.

Potential employers:

- schools and preschools
- universities
- research organisations
- departments of education
- independent schools associations
- Indigenous education makers.

Advanced Standing

If you are a registered teacher with two or more years' experience, or hold a four-year bachelor degree or equivalent, Master of Teaching or Graduate Diploma in Education, you may be eligible for Advanced Standing for up to 36 units (50%) of Flinders' Education Masters Degrees.

This means that you could complete your studies within one year (or equivalent part time).

Find out more:

Flinders.edu.au/credit-recognition-prior-learning

How to apply

Postgraduate coursework degrees:

Applications for postgraduate coursework degrees are lodged through the South Australian Tertiary Admissions Centre (SATAC):

satac.edu.au

1. Select your preferred course

Explore our full range of postgraduate courses at:

Flinders.edu.au/postgrad

2. Check entry requirements

Most graduate entry bachelor degrees, graduate certificates and graduate diplomas require a three-year undergraduate degree from an Australian university or equivalent.

There are also minimum entry requirements for each course. But if you don't meet the requirements you may be admitted (subject to specific conditions) at the discretion of the College offering the course.

Overseas qualifications need to be equivalent to the above to be considered for entry.

3. Check individual course entries on SATAC for information on important dates

Use SATAC's course search to check individual course entries for information on important dates. You will find information on commencement date options, relevant closing date(s) for applications, and the timing of offers.

satac.edu.au/postgraduate

4. Apply online at SATAC

Apply for postgraduate coursework at Flinders through the South Australian Tertiary Admissions Centre (SATAC).

satac.edu.au/postgraduate

Higher Degree by Research (HDR):

Applications for Higher Degree by Research (HDR) are lodged directly through Flinders University:

Flinders.edu.au/research

1. Confirm your eligibility

2. Confirm your supervisor

Ensure an academic staff member has agreed to supervise your HDR Project

3. Prepare your documentation

HDR applicants are required to provide a research outline, research experience statement and academic transcripts prior to submitting your application. Ensure you have reviewed the course rule and course information page for any additional requirements.

4. Apply online at Flinders

Flinders.edu.au/research

Studying on campus

Bedford Park campus

Flinders' huge main campus at Bedford Park features an award-winning hub and plaza, with retail, food outlets and a state-of-the-art sport and fitness centre. Take a virtual tour of Flinders University and explore our amazing locations. It's the next best thing to being here!

Flinders.edu.au/vr

Student Hub and Plaza

Open 24/7, the award-winning Hub and Plaza brings the best of coffee and street food culture to the heart of the Bedford Park campus, with retail options, innovative study spaces and free wi-fi access.

Food and drink

You'll never go hungry at Bedford Park, with a wide variety of food outlets.

Shopping

Bedford Park features a range of retail outlets.

Studying online or externally

Bedford Park campus

Flinders online courses provide a convenient and flexible way to achieve your study and career ambitions.

You'll receive the same quality education and qualifications as on-campus students with dedicated support services such as technical, learning, library and general support available throughout your entire degree.

With a variety of industry-focused postgraduate courses, you can work at a pace (and place) that fits in with your lifestyle.

Flinders.edu.au/study-online

FEE-HELP

FEE-HELP is a government loan scheme that assists eligible students to pay their tuition fees. Your FEE-HELP loan is repaid through the tax system when your income is above the minimum threshold for compulsory repayments.

Flinders.edu.au/fee-help

Bedford Park campus

Postgraduate Education

Contact us

Our friendly staff are available to answer your questions:

1300 354 633 (local call cost) | askflinders@flinders.edu.au | flinders.edu.au/ask

International students should contact:

+61 8 8201 2727 | flinders.edu.au/international | INTLAdmissions@flinders.edu.au