At Flinders, it's all about your sporting career

Choose your degree

Flinders University offers a range of sports-oriented degrees that will see you graduate prepared for a sport-related career. From the business of sport to the science that helps athletes perform at their best, choose a degree that reflects your passion for healthy living, physical activity and the sporting world.

Get the support you need

From sporting facilities to financial support, mental health and wellbeing resources and services, student grants, counselling services (including careers and financial) and many social opportunities, we offer a range of services to ensure your study experience is everything you want it to be.

Gain real-world experience

Flinders' Work Integrated Learning (WIL) enables you to gain work experience while you study. You'll have the opportunity to gain real-world experience through placements, practicums, field studies and simulated workplace settings and assessment activities. Flinders aims to provide each and every student with access to a WIL opportunity during their studies.

"The Bachelor of Sport, Health and Physical Activity is flexible, practical and provides you with knowledge and skills in a range of different areas within the sport industry. There is a lot of scope within the degree to choose your career path and align the practical experiences you'll have during your studies with that career path. The role I hold today at the SANFL came to fruition through the connections I made during my placement."

Learn from industry experts and active researchers who build academic programs on real-world experience.

Associate Professor Shane Pill is just one example of many talented teachers across our sports programs.

Our staff strive to push the boundaries of teaching excellence through research, and through progressive pedagogical methods.

They work with students to develop courses and tailored academic programs that provide the best outcomes and career development for each potential athlete, coach, physio, analyst or even sports enthusiast.

Associate Professor Shane Pill has written a book on sports leadership. In fact, he's written six, not to mention over 100 scholarly and academic papers. Recipient of two Australian Awards for University Teaching (2021, 2016), Shane is a specialist in curriculum design and enactment, pedagogy and instructional strategies for games and sport teaching, sport coaching and curriculum leadership.

With 18 years' experience in school science and physical education classrooms, and now 15 years in teaching, research and leadership in physical education and sport pedagogy, curriculum and school leadership at Flinders University, Shane also brings extensive experience in not-for-profit organisation board roles and sport coaching to his role. Shane has worked with Cricket Australia, the National Rugby League (NRL), Tennis Australia, the Australian Football League (AFL), the South Australian Football League (SANFL), the South Australian Institute for Sport (SASI), the South Australian Education Department and many more high-impact initiatives.

HOP, SKIP AND PIVOT

How a Flinders sport degree helped Christian to hop, skip and pivot in his career.

Do you love sport and want to help improve communities' physical and mental health and wellbeing? Many people dream of a career in sport, and for Christian Thiel, this became a reality by completing a Bachelor of Sport, Health and Physical Activity at Flinders.

The versatility of this degree also recently allowed him to pivot into a community development role.

"With a love for sport, but still unsure on exactly what I wanted to do with my career, the Bachelor of Sport, Health and Physical Activity was a great option" says Christian. "The sport industry is so multifaceted and offers such a diverse range of career opportunities, from elite sport through to grassroots community sport."

Sport is competitive by nature and the industry is no different, but it is also enormous and full of opportunity. The Bachelor of Sport, Health and Physical Activity gives you the knowledge and practical skills to find success in a broad range of areas within the diverse industry.

"Throughout the degree, I had the opportunity to learn a broad range of skills, from event management and marketing through to health promotion", says Christian. "This has given me a diverse skill set, which has allowed me to adapt and contribute to other areas within an organisation. Job roles are constantly changing and having the diverse knowledge I gained through my degree gives me confidence to be successful in the industry."

From student to coach

How Velvet Klass is inspiring young female athletes

Do you want to help get the most out of athletes and help them achieve their goals? Flinders alumna Velvet Klass studied a Bachelor of Sport, Health and Physical Activity (Honours) and now works as a strength and conditioning coach at soccer-specific gym Player Performance Project. Velvet is also a State U17 girls futsal coach, and runs educational seminars for female athletes around the menstrual cycle using research from her Honours year and her current PhD studies.

Velvet's passion is working with young female athletes to maximise their potential and build self belief that they can succeed.

"As a female athlete, I missed out on a lot of opportunities when I was younger and I didn't have any female coaches to aspire to", says Velvet. "I want to be that person that female athletes can look up to and know that they can achieve anything."

After graduating, Velvet secured her role at Player Performance Project and is regularly putting the knowledge learned in her degree and during her university placements into practice.

"Everything that I've learned in terms of strength and conditioning really applies to my work as a coach", says Velvet. "Because of the placements I had at Arsenal Football Club and Adelaide United Football Club, I felt confident going out into the workforce. I felt if I could work with Arsenal, I could achieve anything."

Pathways to study

Whether you are a school leaver or returning to study at a later date, there are many ways to gain admission to Flinders University. Explore your options and find the entry path that's right for you.

If you have secondary education

Year 12 entry

Most Year 12 applicants enter university via the traditional entry method, where offers are made to eligible applicants with the highest selection rank until all places in the degree are filled. Your selection rank is used by Flinders to assess your admission to a course and is based on your ATAR plus any adjustment factors for which you are eligible.

finders.edu.au/year12

Guaranteed entry

If you achieve an ATAR equal to or above the published guaranteed entry selection rank (and you meet course prerequisites) you will be guaranteed a place at Flinders. We offer guaranteed entry for most courses.

Indigenous Admission Scheme

The Indigenous Admission Scheme provides an alternative pathway for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, who may not have been able to gain entry to university by traditional means, with the opportunity to study at Flinders.

See page 28 for further details.

Elite Athlete Pathway

If you've officially represented your school or state at a national level competition, we'll consider your school's recommendation about your academic potential when you apply.

Research Project B Pathway

If you have strong results in the Research Project B subject you will be considered for entry into Flinders on the basis of your Year 12 results and Research Project B performance.

finders.edu.au/study/pathways/year-12-entry/research-project

School Recommendation Program

We may consider your school's recommendation about your academic performance as part of your admission into Flinders.

uniTEST

If you're in Year 12, uniTEST is available to enhance your chances of getting into Flinders. We will select students based on their Year 12 results (60% weighting toward the ATAR selection rank) and uniTEST results (40%). Flinders will also consider applicants based on their uniTEST results (100%) as a standalone entry score (subject to SACE completion and any course prerequisites or specific admissions requirements). If you take the test and don't do well, we will only consider your highest selection rank.

- be accepted as an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander in the community in which you live or have lived.

You may be currently studying Year 12 or be a non-school leaver.

How to apply

1. Apply for the course you want to study through the South Australian Tertiary Admissions Centre (SATAC). You will get an application number from SATAC that you will need for your Indigenous Admission Scheme application form.
2. Complete the Indigenous Admission Scheme application form online (flinders.edu.au/indigenousadmissions). If you are having trouble completing an online application, you can request a paper-based application via ias@flinders.edu.au or call us on 08 8201 3033.
3. An interview is part of the application process, but you will be notified about this.

Application and interview dates

First round applications close late November and second round applications close early January for semester 1. For our midyear intake to a number of courses, applications close in June.

“I originally chose Flinders as they have one of the best facilities for future teachers and fantastic student engagement. Studying at Flinders has been a wonderful experience that has given me the opportunity to discover what I truly want into the future while also providing me with support in every way imaginable. Flinders and Yungkurinthe have given me the opportunity to meet others with similar ambitions and goals as myself and find the benefit of an education in places I would never have thought to look. As a proud Indigenous woman, I want to use my degree to work in First Nation communities to help our young people make it through their high schooling experience and onto their own future aspirations.”

“I always knew I wanted to study overseas at some stage during my degree. A semester exchange gave me the chance to complete topics that weren't available in my home university and experience life in a city that is very different to my own. Having completed a semester overseas, I now have an edge over the countless other students that are completing the same degree as me and have formed memories that will always stay with me.”

Bachelor of Business
(Advanced Leadership)

“The Wyndham Richardson Scholarship Fund has been invaluable to reduce the financial pressure during studies, especially now that I am in the later years of my degree.”

Fees and charges

Your course fees – Commonwealth support

All our courses list indicative fees, but as an undergraduate student your course is Commonwealth supported provided you're an eligible Australian citizen, New Zealand citizen or permanent resident.

Your course being Commonwealth supported means that your course fees are shared between the Australian government and you – with your portion being the student contribution amount.

HECS-HELP loan

You won't have to pay your fees up-front if you're an Australian citizen or holder of a permanent humanitarian visa. You can get a HECS-HELP loan for your student contribution portion of your uni fees. Find out more about costs to plan for while you're at uni at

Glossary

There are many terms used within a university that may be unfamiliar or confusing. Below are a few terms that may need explanation.

Admission pathway

Any one of the options available to a prospective higher education student that will enable them to meet the entry requirements of their chosen courses.

ATAR

The Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR) is a ranking from 30 (lowest) to 99.95 (highest) agreed by COAG as a nationally equivalent measure of a person's relative academic ranking within their complete age cohort in the year they graduated from senior secondary school.

Adjustment factors

Often referred to as 'bonus points', these are additional points that may be used in combination with an applicant's university aggregate to derive their course selection rank.

Defer

Delaying the start of a course of study by one year (commencing students only). If you have already enrolled, then you need to withdraw from topics before you can defer.

Not all courses are deferrable. Please visit flinders.edu.au/defer for details.

Guaranteed entry selection rank

Achieve a selection rank equal to or above the published guaranteed entry selection rank and you'll be guaranteed a place at Flinders.

Major

A sequence of topics required to be taken as defined in your course rule, normally across all years of a course.

Minor

A sequence of topics required to be taken as defined in your course rule, generally as part of a major.

Offer round/s

Refers to the series of dates on which offers of higher education places are issued to applicants throughout the year, whether through a tertiary admission centre or directly by a higher education provider.

Selection rank

The ranking that tertiary admission centres and most universities actually use to assess admission to a course. A person's course selection rank can include their ATAR, any adjustments they are eligible for, such as equity or subject adjustments, other contributions calculated on the basis of work experience or previous non-secondary study, portfolio assessments, results of the Special Tertiary Admissions Test, other supplementary tests, etc.

Listing your SATAC preferences

You may enter up to six course preferences that you would like to study. You should list these in the order in which you'd like to study them, with the one you would like most listed first. If you cannot be offered a place in your first preference, you will then be considered for your second preference and so on. It is also important to consider a backup plan. Ensure you include our recommended pathway courses in your preferences.
