Meet our students

"I chose Flinders because I loved the course. The course contents are appealing and I really appreciate lecturers who are industry experts with effective teaching methodologies. There are many things I like about Flinders, including the library which is so comfortable and accessible, and the international students services, where we can seek support academically and spiritually."

Sivleng Voeng, CambodiaMaster of Health and International Development

"Flinders has a very proactive support service for international students. We are encouraged to be involved in a range of activities, both academic and non-academic. My course is interesting and informative, and I have learned much about governing and managing people within the scope of an organisation."

Agung Purnomo, IndonesiaMaster of Public Administration

"Not only does Flinders University offer students a high standard of internationally recognised education, but it provides students with a disability a high level of support. I feel more confident in my ability than I have before, and I am excited to return home and share my new knowledge and experiences with friends and colleagues."

Emmanuel Bassey, NigeriaMaster of Disability Policy and Practice

"Adelaide is a beautiful and peaceful multicultural city with many different interesting year-round festivals, activities and events. Flinders is a wonderful university, with friendly and helpful staff. My critical thinking skills have developed and I work more professionally since studying here."
